This corporation is established exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to provide empowerment to individuals, helping them realize their potential, build self-confidence, and cultivate resilience. Our organization is committed to supporting each person's journey toward meaningful employment by offering tailored guidance and resources. Through our dedicated efforts, we assist the poor, the distressed, and the underprivileged, helping them navigate challenges and seize opportunities that align with their goals and aspirations. Our work aims to lessen neighborhood tensions, eliminate prejudice, and overcome discrimination.

The organization strives to achieve this by providing personalized support that addresses each individual's unique needs, fostering an environment where they can thrive and grow. This approach ensures that individuals gain the skills and knowledge necessary for success, enhancing their overall independence and well-being. By prioritizing holistic development, we also work to combat community deterioration and juvenile delinquency, creating lasting positive change in their lives and communities.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. The directors named here are hereby empowered to open accounts at any bank, branch or financial institution that is seen by the directors as suitable and to serve as signatories both individually, in pairs or in groups.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will —after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
