This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to provide rescue, rehabilitation, and rehoming services for abandoned and abused dogs from the streets of South Florida. This corporation is driven by a profound love for animals and is dedicated to ensuring that every dog, regardless of its past experiences or current condition, receives comprehensive care and the opportunity to thrive in a safe, nurturing environment. The ultimate goal is to restore each dog's physical and emotional well-being, preparing them for a new chapter in a loving home.

Through community outreach, education, and partnerships with local shelters and animal welfare organizations, we actively engage with the community to raise awareness about animal welfare issues and promote responsible pet ownership. By offering resources, training, and support, we strive to create a network of care that extends beyond our direct services, fostering a compassionate environment where all dogs can thrive and be valued members of society. Our efforts also include advocating for stronger animal protection laws and collaborating with other groups to amplify the impact of our mission. In all its activities, this corporation will seek to prevent cruelty to animals and to instruct the public on the proper care of pets in general and dogs in particular.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. The President of this corporation is hereby authorized to open accounts at any bank, branch or financial institution that is seen as suitable and to serve as the signatory on said accounts. The President, at his/her sole discretion, may instruct the directors -- both individually, in pairs or in groups— to open bank accounts according to his/her instructions, and to serve as signatories on said accounts.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
