ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The Corporation is a non-profit corporation organized exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes, including all lawful activities incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as otherwise restricted herein.

In addition, the purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

To share the good news about Jesus Christ, encourage others to devote themselves to a relationship with Jesus, teach people about the principles of the Christian faith, encourage people to be active in a local Christian church, conduct classes and other events to teach spiritual truths as set forth in the Bible, to print, publish, and distribute Christian literature, and lead others in the worship of Jesus.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, or educational purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future Internal Revenue Law as the Board of Directors shall determine.
