1. This Corporation shall and does hereby indemnify any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or any subsidiary against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement incurred by such person in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, proceeding, or claim (including any action by or in the right of the Corporation or a subsidiary) by reason of the fact that such person is or was serving in such capacity; provided, however, that no such person shall be entitled to any indemnification pursuant to this subsection 1 on account of conduct which is finally adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent or deliberately dishonest or to have constituted willful misconduct, or for which such person does not have immunity from civil liability pursuant to Section 617.0834, Florida Statutes.

2. This Corporation may, to the extent that the Board of Directors deems appropriate and as set forth in a bylaw or resolution, indemnify any person who is or was an employee or agent of this Corporation or any subsidiary or who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise (including an employee benefit plan) against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement incurred by such person in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, proceeding, or claim (including an action by or in the right of the Corporation or a subsidiary) by reason of the fact that such person is or was serving in such capacity; provided, however, that no such person shall be entitled to any indemnification pursuant to this subsection 2 on account of conduct which is finally adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent or deliberately dishonest or to have constituted willful misconduct, or for which such person does not have immunity from civil liability pursuant to Section 617.0834, Florida Statutes.

3. This Corporation may, to the extent that the Board of Directors deems appropriate, make advances of expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred prior to the final disposition of a civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, proceeding, or claim (including an action by or in the right of the Corporation or a subsidiary) to any person to whom indemnification is or may be available under this Article; provided, however, that prior to making any advances:

4. The indemnification and other rights provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person to whom indemnification is or may be otherwise available under these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, or any agreement, vote of shareholders, or disinterested directors or otherwise may be entitled. This Corporation is authorized to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of the Corporation or any person to whom indemnification is or may be available against any liability asserted against such person in, or arising out of, such person's status as director, officer, employee, or agent of this Corporation, any of its subsidiaries, or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise (including an employee benefit plan) which such person is serving at the request of the Corporation.

5. Each person to whom indemnification is granted under subsection 1 of this Article is entitled to rely upon the indemnification and other rights granted hereby as a contract with this Corporation and such person and such person's legal representatives, heirs, executors, administrators, and estate shall be entitled to enforce against this Corporation all indemnification and other rights granted to such person by subsections 1 and 3 and this subsection 5 of this Article. The indemnification and other rights granted by subsections 1 and 3 and this subsection 5 of this Article shall survive amendment, modification, or repeal of this Article, and no such amendment, modification, or repeal shall act to reduce, terminate, or otherwise adversely affect the rights to indemnification granted hereby, with respect to any expenses, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement incurred by a person to whom indemnification is granted under subsection 1 of this Article with respect to an action, suit, proceeding, or claim that arises out of acts or omissions of such person that occurred prior to the effective date of such amendment, modification, or repeal.

Any indemnification granted by the Board of Directors pursuant to subsection 2 of this Article shall inure to the person to whom the indemnification is granted, and such person's legal representatives, heirs, executors, administrators, and estate; provided, however, that such indemnification may be changed, modified, or repealed, at any time or from time to time at the discretion of the Board of Directors and the survival of such indemnification shall be in accordance with terms determined by the Board of Directors.

6. For the purposes of this Article, "subsidiary" shall mean any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise of which a majority of the equity or ownership interest is directly or indirectly owned by this Corporation.
