This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to assist individuals in the Dominican Republic, particularly those who face financial and social hardships, in discovering their purpose in life and pursuing it with the right tools and support. We provide financial resources to help meet essential needs such as food, shelter, and education, ensuring these basic necessities are accessible to those in need. We provide activities for children, including homework clubs, tutoring sessions, gaming sessions, classes for artistic expression, musical events, and others. By addressing fundamental challenges, we aim to create a foundation for long-term personal and community growth.

In addition to financial support, we focus on empowering youth, specifically teenagers aged 13-19, by offering transportation to extracurricular activities, church, and employment opportunities. This service ensures that young people, regardless of their background, have access to environments where they can grow spiritually, socially, and professionally. By removing transportation barriers, we help cultivate a sense of responsibility and opportunity, guiding them toward a brighter, more purposeful future.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies, and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in-person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. The President of this corporation is hereby authorized to open accounts at any bank, branch or financial institution that is seen as suitable and to serve as a signatory on said accounts. The President, at his sole discretion, may instruct the directors --both individually, in pairs or in groups— to open bank accounts according to his instructions, and to serve as signatories on said accounts.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
