ARTICLE IX Amendments To Articles Of Incorporation

The Foundation's Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority vote of the members of the Foundation's Board of Directors at any regular annual meeting or at any special meeting of said Board called for that purpose. Any such amendment shall be effective upon the filing thereof with the Department of State of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE X Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of this organization, Assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal Tax Code, or shall be distributed to the Federal Government, or to a State or Local Government, for a public purpose.

No part of the assets of the Organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or private persons or corporations.

ARTICLE XI Additional Provisions

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax Code under the Code Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future Federal Tax Code.

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, education, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes of the making of distribution to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section Sections 501(c)(3) Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future Federal Tax Code.

No substantial part or the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, of otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE XII Dedication of Assets

The property of this corporation is dedicated to educational and charitable purposes as defined under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and no part or the Net Income or Assets of this Corporation shall ever inure the benefit of any director, officer or member therefor, or to the benefit of any private individual or Corporation,

ARTICLE XIII Special Provision

If at any time the corporation is deemed to be a Private Foundation as defined in Section 509 of the Code, then so long as the corporation is deemed a private foundation, it shall not, as provide in Section 508 (e) of the Code, fail to require its income for each taxable year to be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to the tax under Section 4942 of the Code, engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code, retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code, or make any investments or expenditures in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 or Section 4945 (d) of the Code.

ARTICLE XIII Activities of the Corporation

The corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) a corporation contributions to which are deductible under the Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE XIV

The corporation may pay reasonable compensation to its officers and directors, in compliance with the majority vote of written approval by the Board of Directors. The Board shall review the compensation of all officers, directors, and contractors on an annual basis.

ARTICLE XV Conflict of Interest

All officers, directors, and related parties must disclose any conflicts of interest to the Board of Directors. They must disclose the existence of any financial interest that may benefit from the nonprofit's activities or from their activities on behalf of the corporation. Following this disclosure, the Board must determine by majority vote whether the officer may retain their position and whether the corporation should engage in the proposed transaction. A person has a financial interest if they have a contract, arrangement, agreement, ownership interest, or other legal interest that may benefit them financially, directly or indirectly, in kind or in cash. The corporation shall remove any officer or director who fails to disclose such interest.
