2.2 The Association shall have no capital stock and shall make no distribution of income or profit to its members, directors or officers.

ARTICLE III

- (e) To promulgate and amend the Rules and Regulations.
- (f) To enforce by legal means, including the levying of fines in accordance with Chapter 718, the provisions of the various Condominium Documents, these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations, and any Floating Use Plan Rules and Regulations which may be adopted.
- (g) To contract for the management of the Condominium and to delegate and assign to such Management Company all powers and duties of the Association except such powers and duties as are specifically required by the various Condominium Documents to have approval of the Board or the Owners or such powers and duties which may not be assigned or delegated pursuant to Chapter 721 and Chapter 718. The Association and its officers shall retain at all times the powers and duties granted by Chapter 718 and Chapter 721, including, but not limited to, the making of assessments, promulgation of Rules and Regulations and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association, except when such powers and duties have been expressly delegated or assigned to the Management Company in the Bylaws or in a contract between the Association or the Developer and the Management Company.
- (h) Unless otherwise provided by law, in the event an Owner fails to pay taxes and assessments against his or her Unit, to pay such taxes and assessments and to assess the same against the Owner subject to such liens.
- (i) To maintain, manage, repair, replace and operate the property of the single condominium resulting from a merger of this Condominium with another independent and separate condominium pursuant to the merger provisions of the Declaration, or the property of other independent and separate condominiums and developments that the Board shall elect to manage, operate and maintain pursuant to the Declaration (in which event the terms "Owner" and "Condominium" hereunder shall be deemed to include such other condominium developments and owners thereof).
- (j) To contract for and acquire one or more Units within the Condominium it operates, for such purposes that are not in conflict with the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, including for the purposes of providing a Unit(s) for the Management Company, which shall include the power to assume or grant a mortgage encumbering the Unit(s) acquired by the Association.
- (k) To obtain loans for purposes of meeting the financial needs of running the Condominium it operates, and as security therefore, pledge the income from assessments collected from Owners.

3.4 The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration.

ARTICLE IV Membership

4.1 The qualifications of members, the manner of their admission, and voting by Owners shall be as follows:

(a) All Owners shall be members of the Association, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership. If the Timeshare Plan consists of "unit weeks" then an Owner shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each "annual unit week" he or she owns in the Condominium, one-half (½) vote for each "biennial unit week," and one-third (1/3) vote for each "triennial unit week" which he or she may own. If the Timeshare Plan consists of undivided interests in a Unit or the Condominium, rather than annual, biennial or triennial unit weeks, then Owners shall be entitled to a vote in the Association equal to his or her percentage interest in the Condominium. An Owner of a Unit not committed to the Timeshare Plan shall be entitled to fifty-two (52) votes for each Unit which he or she may own.

(b) Changes in membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the Public Records of Orange County, Florida, of a deed or other instrument establishing a change of record title to an interest in the Condominium and the delivery to the Association of a copy of such recorded instrument. The Association may make changes to the membership lists in its books and records based upon its independent search of the Public Records of Orange County, Florida, without waiting for delivery to the Association of a copy of the recorded instrument; provided, however, that the Association shall be under no obligation to undertake such independent search. The new Owner designated by the recorded deed or other instrument establishing a change of record title to an interest in the Condominium shall thereby become a member of the Association. The membership of the prior Owner shall be thereby terminated.

(c) The Owner's share in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his or her interest in the Condominium.

ARTICLE VII Indemnification

7.1 Indemnity. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorneys' and paraprofessionals' fees at all levels, including appellate levels), judgments, fines and amounts paid which are reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, unless (i) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he or she did not act in good faith, nor in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association and acted with gross negligence, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he or she had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, and (ii) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. In the event of a termination of any action, suit or proceeding by settlement, this indemnification provision shall apply only when the Board has approved such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Association.

7.2 Expenses. Unless a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association is not entitled to be indemnified under Section 7.1, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' and paraprofessionals' fees at all levels, including any appellate levels) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 7.1.

7.3 Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article VII.

7.4 Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Owners or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

7.5 Insurance. The Association shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

7.6 Amendment Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article VII may not be amended without the prior written consent of all persons whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment.

(g) Seven (7) years after recordation of the initial Declaration or condominium; or 7 years after recordation of the declaration creating the initial phase, whichever occurs first.

8.3 In the event that the Condominium consists of more than 500 units, the Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) member of the Board as long as Developer holds at least two (2%) percent of the Units of the Condominium. In the event that the Condominium consists of less than 500 units, the Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) member of the Board as long as Developer holds at least five (5%) percent of the Units of the Condominium. Following the time the Developer relinquishes control of the association, the Developer may exercise the right to vote any Developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration.
