ARTICLE VIII
Scope of Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, the Corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3).

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation), and no member, trustee, director, officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as provided in Code Section 501(h)), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the Corporation shall, after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to another organization exempt under Code Section 501(c)(3), or to the Federal government, or state or local government for a public purpose.

In any taxable year in which the Corporation is a private foundation as described in Code Section 509(a), the Corporation shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under Code Section 4942, and the Corporation shall not (i) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Code Section 4941(d), (ii) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Code Section 4943(c), (iii) make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Code Section 4944, or (iv) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d).

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above-stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
