This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to sponsor and promote high-quality, targeted therapeutic services to individuals across Florida and elsewhere in the US who have disablements in gross or fine motor skills, speech, or behavior or to those who suffer from cognitive impairments or difficulties with social and emotional skills. Our corporation is committed to offering specialized therapies designed to meet the unique needs of each individual, helping them to overcome challenges and achieve their full potential in daily life.

We believe in the power of personalized care and evidence-based practices to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those we serve. By working closely with families, caregivers, and other healthcare professionals, our corporation will strive to ensure that each client receives comprehensive support tailored to their specific needs. Through continuous evaluation and adaptation of our therapeutic programs, we will strive to empower individuals to lead fulfilling lives, fostering independence, confidence, and social integration.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. The President of this corporation is hereby authorized to open accounts at any bank, branch or financial institution that is seen as suitable and to serve as a signatory on said accounts. The President, at their sole discretion, may instruct the directors --both individually, in pairs or in groups— to open bank accounts as instructed, and to serve as signatories on said accounts.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
