Articles of Incorporation of 1000times Inc.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: Event Planning and Execution

The organization hosts workshops, seminars, public lectures, webinars, and conferences, aiming to educate and engage the community on relevant topics. Event logistics such as scheduling, securing venues, and managing online platforms—are central to this activity.

Program Development

Identifying key educational topics and developing engaging program content is essential. This often involves collaborating with subject matter experts, creating curriculum or session outlines, and ensuring content is accessible and relevant.

Partnerships and Sponsorships

Building relationships with educational institutions, government agencies, and corporate sponsors helps the organization expand its reach, resources, and impact. Partnerships may support event funding, provide expertise, or help promote events to larger audiences.

Marketing and Outreach

To raise awareness and attract attendees, the non-profit engages in marketing activities, including social media campaigns, email newsletters, community outreach, and media relations. Outreach efforts may target specific demographics or broader communities, depending on the event focus.

Fundraising and Grant Management

As a non-profit, securing funding through donations, grants, and sponsorships is critical. The organization may hold fundraising events, apply for grants, or run donation campaigns to support its educational programs.

Volunteer Recruitment and Management

Volunteers often play a vital role in supporting events and operations. Activities: include recruiting, training, and managing volunteers, assigning roles, and recognizing their contributions.

Monitoring and Evaluation

To assess the effectiveness of their programs, the non-profit gathers feedback from participants, tracks attendance, and measures educational impact. This information is used to improve future events and demonstrate impact to stakeholders and funders.

Community Engagement

Ongoing community engagement helps maintain relationships with event participants and local communities. Activities might include follow-up resources, community forums, or continuous learning opportunities to keep audiences engaged beyond individual events.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
