ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE CLAUDE & ROSHAN MORAES FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.,
(A FLORIDA NOT-FOR-PROFIT CORPORATION)

---

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of a corporation not-for-profit under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act, as set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, adopt the following articles of incorporation for the corporation:

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the Corporation shall be: THE CLAUDE & ROSHAN MORAES FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II
PRINCIPAL OFFICE & MAILING ADDRESS

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at 10826 Pine Bark Lane, Boca Raton, FL 33428.

The mailing address of the Corporation shall be 10826 Pine Bark Lane, Boca Raton, FL 33428.

ARTICLE III
GENERAL NATURE OF BUSINESS

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (herein referred to as the "Code"), or corresponding section of any future Federal tax laws; including, by way of example and not limitation, providing charitable assistance and support to cancer patients while they undergo treatment so they can focus on their recovery.

The general nature, object, purpose, and powers of the Corporation shall be:

A. To do benevolent and charitable acts; to assist the needy and underprivileged; to assist persons, children and families who are neglected; to expend funds for educational purposes.

B. To make gifts or contributions to charitable corporations, trusts, funds or foundations; hospitals, wards or departments thereof; schools, churches, Sunday schools and religious or civic organizations; orphanages or homes for the aged or infirm; Federal, State and local governments or sub-divisions thereof; and to further medical or scientific research.

C. To conduct benefits, social functions and other forms of entertainment or business for the promotion and advancement of the benevolent and charitable purposes of the Corporation.

D. To make contributions to any organization as described in §501(c)(3) of the Code, other than an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.

E. In general, to carry out the purposes described in Paragraphs A, B, C, and D hereof, to raise funds through contributions and to exercise any and all powers which it may now or hereafter be lawful for the Corporation to do or exercise under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida within the restrictions of §501(c)(3) of the Code, for the purposes of accomplishing the foregoing purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV CHARITABLE RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

The purposes and operation of this Corporation shall be specifically restricted and limited as follows:

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, agents, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable Federal, State, or local laws.

C. The Corporation shall not: (1) operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit; (2) engage in any prohibited transactions as described in § 503 of the Code; or (3) accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status by virtue of §504 of the Code.

ARTICLE V CORPORATE POWERS

As a means of accomplishing the purposes set forth in Article III hereof, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

A. To purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan, option or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidences of indebtedness or personal property, as well as to purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, option or otherwise dispose of and deal in real estate; and, as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership; however, said activities shall at all times be subservient to and in furtherance of the charitable religious, educational and scientific purposes of the Corporation.

B. To receive contributions, gifts, bequests and devises, and to accept transfers and assignments of money, real or personal property, from any person, trust, firm, corporation or association, subject to such conditions, charges and retained, reserved or contracted for estates, life estates, interests, annuities, or periodic payment obligations as may exist or be agreed upon, the foregoing to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of the Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for regular or irregular contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes.

C. To establish and maintain an office or offices, and to employ such assistance, clerical force, agents and employees as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the Board of Directors; and to pay reasonable compensation for services performed by persons so retained or employed, including Directors and officers of the Corporation, and to reimburse out of earnings or capital, such persons for expenses they may pay or incur while acting for the Corporation and in furtherance of its purposes.

D. To distribute, from time to time in the manner, form and method and by the means determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, any and all forms of contributions and other property received by it, including net earnings on its property and investments, but only in carrying out the objects of the Corporation and in the furtherance of its purposes; and to distribute and apply its earnings and property, as aforesaid, either directly for the Corporation's purposes, or indirectly therefor by means of contributions or gifts to corporations, trusts, funds, associations or other organizations organized exclusively for such purposes and no part of whose net earnings shall or may inure to the benefit of any private Director, shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of whose activities consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

E. To contract and be contracted with, including, without limitation, the power to borrow or lend money, to mortgage, pledge, option or hypothecate assets; in connection with any authorized transaction; to execute or issue and deliver any appropriate document or writing, including, without limitation, bonds, debentures, notes, checks, leases, deeds, options, assignments and bills of sale, and to sue and be sued.

F. To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property as its Board of Directors shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of §501(c)(3) of the Code, and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

G. To adopt and use a corporate seal, if desired and deemed necessary, but this shall not be compulsory unless required by law.

H. To do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further the objects for which the Corporation is formed and in general to have all the rights, privileges, and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character.

I. In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which now are or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a Corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the Corporation, subject to the further limitation and condition that, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of the Corporation and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under §501(c)(3) of the Code, and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended and by any organization contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Code, and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

J. All of the above and the foregoing are to be construed both as objects and powers and it is expressly provided that the specific objects and powers enumerated herein shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation, except that no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall in any manner, including any dissolution, inure to the benefit of any Director, officer, employee, person or persons having a personal or private interest in the affairs of the Corporation, and the Corporation shall have no power to issue stock or in any manner constitute any individual or individuals as shareholders in the sense that any part of the net income of the Corporation would inure to the benefit of such shareholder or shareholders. Upon any dissolution of the Corporation, the assets, after payment of debts and charges and reasonable necessary expenses of dissolution, shall be distributed, pursuant to law, whether by court decree or in such other manner as may now or hereafter be authorized by statute to or in furtherance of the benevolent or charitable purposes in these Articles of Incorporation or to one or more organizations which would then qualify under §501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and Regulations now existing or as they may be hereafter amended, provided such organization or organizations be described in §170(b) (1) (A) (other than in clauses (vii) or (viii)), each having been in existence and so described for a continuous period of at least sixty calendar months.

ARTICLE VI TERRITORY OF OPERATIONS

The territory in which the operations of the Corporation are principally to be conducted is the State of Florida of the United States of America, and its territories and possessions, but the operations of the Corporation shall not be limited to such territory.

ARTICLE VII TERM OF EXISTENCE

This Corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE VIII DIRECTORS

The number of Directors of the Corporation shall be not less than three (3) or more than seven (7) and as fixed from time to time by the Directors. Any adult of good character, integrity and prudence is qualified for Directorship and may be elected at any annual or special meeting of Directors held for that purpose by a vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Further, there shall at all times during the existence of the Corporation be at least one (1) Director who is a lineal descendant of Claude L. Moraes and Roshan Moraes, or, who is the adopted child of a lineal descendant of Claude L. Moraes and Roshan Moraes. Directors shall be elected until their respective successors are elected and have qualified. No Director shall be personally liable to the creditors of the Corporation for any of the debts or liabilities of the Corporation. No Director shall be liable to any assessment. No Director shall have the right to sell or transfer his or her Directorship or his or her rights or privileges as such, or to substitute another person as a Director in his or her place. Any person ceasing to be a Director, whether voluntarily or by expulsion or by death, shall forfeit all rights and privileges of Directorship. The Board of Directors, by a majority vote, shall have the right and power to expel any Director of the Corporation with or without cause. Provisions for special meetings of Directors shall be made in the Bylaws of the Corporation. The annual meeting of Directors shall be held during the first quarter of each calendar year, at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors, or on such other day in lieu thereof as may be provided for in the Bylaws or by the Board of Directors acting pursuant to the Bylaws.
