This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to make the world a happier and more peaceful place by advancing the understanding and practice of mindfulness and meditation in the Western world. This corporation will accomplish its purpose by providing essential information and resources for meditators and meditation teachers, offering a variety of educational materials and tools. It will establish high standards in the field by offering oversight, standardization, certification, and accreditation for new meditation teachers and meditation teacher training courses, ensuring that both individuals and communities receive reliable and effective guidance.

Our purpose is to alleviate mental and emotional stress, promote inner peace, and contribute to the creation of a more compassionate, resilient society. By providing access to well-structured programs, resources, and community-building events, the corporation seeks to improve mental well-being, foster personal growth, and enhance the stability and quality of life for individuals and communities engaged in mindfulness and meditation practices. Through these efforts, we aim to bridge the gap between knowledge and practice, empowering individuals with the tools they need to live healthier, more fulfilled lives while cultivating a broader culture of mindfulness and awareness. Through its activities, this corporation will strive to alleviate suffering, calm neighborhood tensions, defend human rights, and stop community deterioration.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide suitable facilities for its activities. The incorporator of this corporation will serve as its President at any time he so chooses.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other
