RE: Articles of Incorporation:
PACT Institute for the Performing Arts, Inc.
And Performing Arts Center Fund, Inc.

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the two above-referenced not-for-profit corporations, enclosed please find two executed copies of the Articles of Incorporation for each corporation, and a check in the total amount of $110.00, representing the filing fee, the certified copy fee, and the registered agent fee for each corporation.

Your attention is directed to Article II of the Articles of Incorporation which may state specific commencement dates for these corporations. Please make sure your records indicate the correct effective dates.

Please acknowledge filing of these documents by stamping the duplicate copies and returning them to me, along with a certified copy of each document. If you have any questions or require further information, please contact me by telephone.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to my telephone conversation today with Brenda Tadlock the assistant supervisor of the Foreign and Non Profit Section, I enclose original and duplicate copies of Articles of Incorporation for the two (2) referenced Florida Not-For-Profit Corporations. As we discussed, the rubber stamp of the notary public on each document would seem to satisfy all requirements of Florida Statutes. However, to expedite the filing of these articles, the notary public has affixed her impression seal on each document.

Therefore, I would assume that these documents are now ready for filing with your office.

If you require any further assistance, please contact me by telephone rather than returning the documents.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

PERFORMING ARTS CENTER FUND, INC.
(A Corporation Not-for-Profit)

We, the undersigned natural persons of legal age, acting as incorporators for the purpose of creating a corporation not-for-profit under the laws of the State of Florida, as provided in Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: PERFORMING ARTS CENTER FUND, INC.

ARTICLE II

DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual existence, commencing as of the date of acceptance and filing of these Articles by the Secretary of State of Florida.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES

Said corporation is organized and shall be operated solely to solicit and to receive contributions to be distributed and used for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including the making of distributions for such purposes to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). The recipient of such distributions shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, be PACT, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS

This corporation shall have all powers granted by law to not-for-profit corporations subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

(a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(b) No member, director, officer, or private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of competent jurisdiction, as provided by law, of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V

MEMBERSHIP

(a) This corporation shall be organized on a nonstock basis and shall not issue shares of stock.

(b) Those persons who make contributions to this corporation shall be eligible for membership in this corporation. Each such person approved by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws, shall be automatically admitted as a member of this corporation for the fiscal year of the corporation in which a contribution is made; provided, that the Board of Directors may also provide for Funded Life Membership. The Board of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws, may expel members.

(c) All members shall have the same rights and privileges and each member shall be entitled to one (1) vote on all corporate matters requiring a vote of the membership. The members shall be entitled to elect the Directors. Except as otherwise provided by law, the members in attendance at any duly called meeting shall constitute a quorum and the majority vote of the members in attendance shall govern as to all matters requiring a vote of the membership.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Control of the affairs of the corporation shall initially be vested in the Board of Directors consisting of not less than three (3) Directors, who shall be elected by the members of the corporation on an annual basis, but the term of office of any member of the Board of Directors may be for a period of more than one (1) year as provided in the Bylaws. The number of Directors may be, as provided in the Bylaws, increased or decreased, but shall never be less than three (3) Directors nor more than forty (40). Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the Board, whether or not then a quorum. Any member of the Board of Directors elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Each member of the Board of Directors must be a member of the corporation as a condition precedent to election or appointment to the Board except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors may be organized into two (2) or more separate categories of Directors as provided in the Bylaws. The names and addresses of the first members of the Board of Directors who shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified are:
