To Whom It May Concern;

Only to-day has it been brought to our attention, that we (Maple Leaf Estates Woodworkers Club, Inc.) are delinquent with regards to our filing for 2002, by virtue of us discovering a new request for filing by September 13, 2002.

Our records indicate that we filed our report approx. January 18, 2002, and that the cheque for the filing fee, $61.25 was received by you and deposited on February 2, 2002.

A telephone call to your Department to-day revealed that you had sent us a letter dated February 4, 2002, stating that our report was incomplete as filed, and therefor rejected. For some unexplainable reason this letter was not received by anyone in our club. Furthermore nearly all our members are only here from November through April, which can explain our inattention to the additional forms sent to us, and the missed September 13th deadline for filing same.

Our application for reinstatement is enclosed. Please accept Robert Schaeffer as the Current Registered Agent as shown, in spite of the name added in ink and then crossed out. We have also added as the Office Mailing Address, the address of The Current Registered Agent in the hope that any future correspondence from your office will not be lost due to the lack of a specific Unit Number.

Should you require further information, or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

Poul Larsen, 2100 King's Hwy., # 884, Port Charlotte, Fl. 33980. Telephone 941 625 1248
