TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

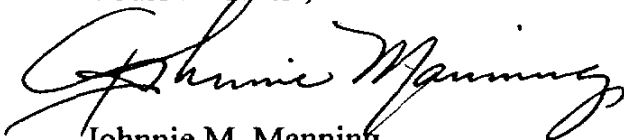

We have recently suffered the loss of our Church office/sec. who handled this business. It has been brought to my attention that this annual report had not been handled accurately and we have been dissolved as a corporation.

Via telephone conversation on 5/18/99, your office informed me that the annual corp. form and a check of $61.25 was returned to us because of lack of signature. I have not been able to locate such letter, but I did find a dissolution form in the files. Your office instructed me to send this with $122 for re-instatement.

I ask that you please consider our situation and re-instate us as a corporation. An additional $8.75 is included for a certificate of status.

With much gratitude we bless you for helping us through this difficulty.

Yours in Christ,

Johnnie M. Manning
Pastor/President
