This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to provide enrichment opportunities and skill-building programs for children within the Orthodox Jewish community. This corporation will accomplish this by organizing and implementing engaging activities designed to foster confidence, teamwork, and creativity. Our purpose is to alleviate challenges children face in discovering and maximizing their strengths. Through these efforts, the corporation seeks to provide a nurturing environment that empowers children to succeed academically, socially, and emotionally, improving their overall quality of life.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will —after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
