This corporation is founded exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code Sec 501(c)(3); namely: To establish, maintain and operate one or more Synagogues in the area of Tel Aviv, Israel, or elsewhere, according to the Orthodox Jewish Chabad tradition. There will be to provided worship meetings, religious instruction, spiritual guidance, religious educational, inspirational events, cultural activities, social activities and all other helpful services to the local Jewish community and to any who seek Judaism's universal path for humanity. It will strive to build an open and vibrant Jewish community for the thousands of English speakers that live, work and visit Tel Aviv. Through uplifting Shabbat and Holiday services and sacred meals, dynamic young professional events, insightful Torah classes, and engaging social events, Chabad on the Coast will encourage Jews of all backgrounds and affiliations to connect with each other, to their Jewish heritage, and to their Jewish future. This corporation's activities will include, but not be limited to: prayer meetings, religious classes in person or online, community outreach, celebrations, sacred feasts, lifecycle events, excursions and musical praise. It will provide Jewish charity and aid to the needy. This may include, at the sole discretion of the Rabbi or the Directors, emergency services and other crisis interventions when necessary.

This corporation will strive to awaken the spark of inner holiness in the hearts of Jewish people and return them to their ancestral faith. It will likewise strive to prepare the world for redemption by bringing all persons in the general community closer to The Creator in the ways that are right for each. It will carry out its activities according to Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulchan Aruch) by Rabbis Yosef Karo and Moshe Isserles as well as in the Code of Jewish Law by Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liadi and the works and guidance of subsequent leaders of the Chabad Movement, all this as understood by this corporation's Rabbi, Eliyahu Naiditch, who is the incorporator of this corporation and the Chabad emissary to the area. The Rabbi has been appointed according to Jewish Religious Law. He is the spiritual head of the organization and the final authority in all matters pertaining to Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law, including the sole right to determine which questions or issues should be regarded as matters of Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law, thus requiring his decision.

This corporation will be empowered to pay salaries or wages, as well as to rent or buy personal or real property, in order to carry out its activities and to provide a parsonage for the Rabbi and his family. This corporation shall not, except in an insubstantial way, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of its charitable religious purposes. It will not attempt to influence legislation in any way or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers or any private person except that this corporation will be empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to work done, resources purchased or properties acquired that are seen by the directors to be in furtherance of its exempt purposes. This corporation is empowered to supply all the foods, religious items and physical constructions or properties required according to Jewish Law and Chabad tradition, including but not limited to, Religious Articles, Kosher Food, Ritual Immersion Pools, Social halls, Kitchens or Dining Facilities, Hebrew School Facilities, Youth Facilities, or transportation to any event or location which in the view of the Rabbi or Directors is required for the fulfillment of Religious Duties as understood in Jewish and/or Chabad Chasidic Tradition.

Upon the filing of these articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, file forms with government agencies and undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in-person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures all of which will be seen the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors shall likewise be seen as written signed consent to the proposal being responded to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities- distribute all remaining assets to one or more organizations with similar exempt purposes recognized under section 501(c) (3) of the IRS Code.
