The Board of Trustees shall have all powers, duties, and fiduciary responsibilities conferred upon boards of directors under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, including but not limited to establishing policies, approving budgets, overseeing investments, and ensuring compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws. The By-Laws shall detail the specific duties, authority, responsibilities, election procedures, and governance mechanisms of the Board of Trustees and its committees. The Board may delegate authority to officers, committees, and agents as set forth in the By-Laws, provided that ultimate responsibility for oversight, fiduciary governance, and compliance shall remain solely with the Board of Trustees.

4.02 Number of Trustees. The By-Laws shall specify comprehensive procedures and eligibility criteria for the election, re-election, resignation, removal, and replacement of Trustees, including the manner of filling any vacancies that arise between elections. The Board of Trustees may, consistent with the By-Laws, establish committees or adopt policies related to the identification, nomination, vetting, and election of Trustees, provided that ultimate authority for the election of Trustees shall always remain vested exclusively in the Board of Trustees.

4.05 Governance Policies. No amendment may: (a) alter the exclusively charitable, educational, historical, and scientific nature of the Foundation; (b) permit activities inconsistent with its exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the laws of the State of Florida; or (c) authorize any action resulting in private inurement or prohibited transactions under the Code. The Foundation shall have no members and shall issue no membership interests or capital stock. All rights, powers, fiduciary responsibilities, and governance authority shall reside exclusively with the Board of Trustees, as provided herein and in the By-Laws. The Board may establish advisory boards, committees, honorary positions, or similar entities to support and advise the Foundation, provided that no advisory, honorary, or committee roles shall confer any governance rights, fiduciary responsibilities, voting powers, or decision-making authority reserved exclusively to the Board of Trustees under these Articles, the By-Laws, or applicable law.
