PURPOSE

This not for profit is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 or the successor provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The purpose of the organization is to empower single mothers and underprivileged individuals in the First Coast community by providing educational scholarships, mentorship, and vocational opportunities. Our mission extends beyond financial assistance to fostering social and economic mobility for students, teachers, and families in disadvantaged minority communities and educational institutions.

We achieve these goals by offering mentorship programs, hands-on training, and strategic partnerships with community organizations and businesses. Through these collaborations, we provide access to alternative educational pathways, vocational training, and career development programs that equip individuals with the skills and resources needed for long-term success.

To the end that the forgoing objectives and purposes and any related charitable and educational purposes may be carried out, performed and accomplished, this corporation shall have the power to engage only in such activities as shall not constitute business related to its charitable and educational purposes. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 or the successor provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. Subject to the foregoing limitations, this corporation shall have all of the rights and powers set forth in Section 617.0302, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE IV

MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The method or manner of the election of the Board of Directors shall be stated in the corporate by-laws.
