Said organization is organized and operated exclusively as a social club which must be organized for pleasure, recreation and other similar nonprofitable purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

A club must not have a written policy that discriminates on the basis of race, color or religion. The exceptions to the nondiscrimination requirement are as follows:

- A. IRC § 501(i)(1) provides an exception for certain auxiliaries of IRC § 501(c)(8) fraternal beneficiary societies that limit their membership to the members of a particular religion.
- B. IRC § 501(i)(2) provides an exception for a club which in good faith limits its membership to the members of a particular religion in order to further the teachings or principles of that religion, and not to exclude individuals of a particular race or color.
- C. A club's governing instruments may limit its membership to individuals of a particular national origin without jeopardizing its exemption.
- D. The membership can be restricted to a particular political party or to homeowners in a specific housing development

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the city or county in which the principal office of this organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
