This has been an difficult filing year for us. We received the notice to file our annual report and did so in June of this year (2002). We discovered in September that you had never received our report nor payment. We then filed a complain with the Post Office about missing undelivered mail. We promptly completed a second set of annual reports and again sent you payment of $70.00. We had had mail held for other reasons for one week and some how your notice of dissolution was held until very recently. We did not hear from you or received our notice of dissolution until Nov. 25th 2002., in the mean time you cashed our $70.00 check.

Please accept our completed forms and waive our late fees. I would appreciate it if you would send all correspondence to me personally at the retreat center address noted below. Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Rev. R. L. Rector
