A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, loan, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property.

B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the foregoing Purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to said Act.

C. To do such other things as are incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the Purposes of the Corporation.

D. To modify any restriction or condition on the distribution of funds for any specified charitable purposes or to specified organizations, if in the sole judgment of the Board of Directors (without the approval of any trustee, custodian, or agent), such restriction or condition becomes, in effect, unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable needs of the areas served by the corporation, notwithstanding any conflicting formal or informal understanding or any provision in any instrument that creates or adds a fund or trust to the corporation or evidences any gift, bequest or devise to the corporation or such fund or trust.

E. To replace any participating trustee, custodian, or agent for breach of fiduciary duty under the laws of the State of Florida or for failure to produce reasonable return of net income (or appreciation when not inconsistent with the Corporation's need for current income) with due regard to safety of principal, over a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Board of Directors. Upon the exercise of the power to replace any participating trustee, custodian, or agent, the Board of Directors shall have the power to select a successor trustee, custodian, or agent to whose custody the fund or funds held by the former trustee, custodian, or agent shall be transferred.

1. In determining whether there is a reasonable return of net income there shall be excluded from such determination such assets as are held for the active conduct of this community trust's exempt activities; and such determination shall be made separately with respect to each restricted fund and shall be made in the aggregate with respect to the unrestricted funds of this community trust. A "restricted fund" shall mean a fund, any income of which has been designated by the donor of the gift or bequest to which such income is attributable as being available only for the use or benefit of a named charitable organization or agency or for the use or benefit of a particular class of charitable organizations or agencies, the members of which are readily ascertainable and are less than five in number.

2. If it appears that there may be grounds for exercising the powers described herein with respect to any fund the Board of Directors shall notify the participating trustee, custodian, or agent involved and provide a reasonable opportunity for explanation and/or correction. Before exercising this power, the Board of Directors may seek advice of legal counsel as to whether a breach or failure has been committed under the laws of the State of Florida. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not attempt to influence legislation or participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Article 11. Additional Limitations and Requirements. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members (if the Corporation ever has any), Directors, Directors or Officers, but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Purposes set forth herein.

Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the aforesaid purposes of the Corporation or to such qualified organization or organizations as said court shall determine. For purposes of this Article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving such assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Section 170(c)(1) or 170(c)(2)(B) of the Code and is described in Section 509(a)(1), (2) or (3) of the Code.

Article 14. Bylaws. The Bylaws of the Corporation are to be made and adopted by majority vote of the Board of Directors, and may be altered, amended or rescinded by majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Article 16. Indemnification and Civil Liability Immunity. The Corporation shall indemnify each Trustee, Director and Officer, including former Directors, Directors and Officers, to the fullest extent allowed by law, including but not limited to Florida Statutes Chapter 617. It is intended that the Corporation be an organization the Officers, Directors and Directors of which are immune from civil liability to the extent provided under Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and other similar laws.

The undersigned, as the duly authorized President of the Corporation, has executed these Restated Articles this 12 day of Dec, 2004 after these Restated Articles were approved by a unanimous vote of the Directors then in office on December 12, 2004
