Pursuant to our phone conversation I have attached our application for reinstatement.

As I mentioned we did respond to your letter dated September 10, 2002. We made the appropriate changes requested and returned the application promptly. We thought all was in order only to receive another letter dated December 11, 2002 informing us that the application period had expired and that we now owed an additional $175.00

In January 2003 I had a phone conversation with a representative of your office to discuss the situation. She advised me to send a letter along with $61.25 for 2003 fees. She said this would resolve the matter. I sent this letter on January 15, 2003. This letter was returned along with a letter from the Secretary of State office dated January 28, 2003 that was again asking for an additional $175.00.

Please review the attached reinstatement form and contact me if any further action is needed.

Thanks for your assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Tony Neuner
