ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
to
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
of
THE DOLPHIN-US PROJECT, INC.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following articles of amendment to its articles of incorporation.

FIRST: Amendment (s) adopted:

ARTICLE I. Name: Amend to read:

The name of this Corporation shall be:

The Somo Ka School of Energy Medicine, Inc.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE: Amend to read:

The major purpose of the corporation shall be: to offer educational programs in Energy Medicine, a branch of holistic health and healing that recognizes the interconnection of all life. The Somo Ka School of Energy Medicine's mission is to promote through educational programs and charitable services, health, healing, compassion, inner peace, and respect for all people throughout the world. It is envisioned that when people feel balanced and healed that they will automatically extend greater respect to other life forms, and that there will then be an increased awareness and respect for all animal and plant species, particularly the Cetaceans--the Dolphins and Whales.

The corporation will promote means and opportunities for the education of its members and the general public, throughout the entire world with respect to this field of holistic health and healing referred to as 'Energy Medicine'.

The corporation will offer charitable health and healing services through Energy Medicine practices (as legally allowed by law), whenever feasible to its members and the general public, as a way of further promoting and encouraging holistic health.

The following paragraphs of ARTICLE III remain in their original form with no further amendments:

This corporation will solicit, collect, and otherwise raise money for such purposes; and to expend contribute, to disperse, and otherwise handle and dispose of the same for such purposes; to recognize the unique contributions of its members and the members of other organizations with purposes similar to our own; to provide leadership and be responsive and innovative in addressing the needs of its members and to recognize the unique contributions of its board, officers, coordinators, and members equally, and to value the synergistic effect of all groups working as a team; to do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or attainment of any of the objects, heretofore set out or mentioned, either alone or in association with other individuals, corporations, or partnerships, including but not limited to, the county, state, federal, municipal, or international bodies and authorities, and in general to and perform such things and acts and transact such business in connection with the foregoing objects not inconsistent with the general laws of this land or the powers as may be incident to or convenient for any of the purposes or business of the corporation and to have exercise and enjoy all the rights and privileges of corporations not-for-profit conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and all amendments thereto.

To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishments of the objects enumerated in these Articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereof, or necessary of incidental to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, whether or not such business is similar in nature to the objects set forth in these Articles of Incorporation of such corporation or any amendment thereof. It is the intention that the purposes, objects and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article III of these Articles of Incorporation shall, except as otherwise previously provided, in no wise be limited or restricted by reference to or reference from the terms of any other clause of paragraph of this Article or any other Article of these Articles of Incorporation.

The general purposes for which this corporation is formed to operate exclusively for such educational and charity oriented purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501© (3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954 or corresponding provisions, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax exempt organizations under that code.

SECOND: The date of the adoption of the amendment (s) was: August 25, 1998.
