RE: Fort Myers Beach Civic Association, Inc. -
Document #N37871 (Dated 19 September 2003)

To whom it may concern:

In accordance with my telephone conversation (850-245-6059) with your employee in the Annual Report/Reinstatement Section, I am sending this letter requesting waiver of the Reinstatement Fee and the reinstatement of our non-profit corporation (Fort Myers Beach Civic Association, Inc.) to "active" status.

The reason for this request is that the two prior uniform business report (UBR) notices did not reach our Association's current agent. I have enclosed a completed Application for Reinstatement (Document # N37871), which shows that the Application and previous UBRs were sent to an incorrect mailing address (Johanna Campbell, 21551 Madera Rd., Ft. Myers Beach, FL 33931) for the Association. Ms. Campbell, has not been the corporation's agent for over a year, and likewise her address has not been our Association's Mailing Address for over a year.

Unfortunately, the UBRs were not forwarded to our Association's principal address. Ms. Campbell has been out of state for over six months. After her recent return to Fort Myers Beach, she received the Application for Reinstatement and forwarded it to our Association. I have enclosed the cover sheet of the Application showing her handwritten forwarding message.

Earlier this month, noting that no Annual Report Fee had been paid to Florida Department of State, our Treasurer mailed a check for $61.25 (Check #1337 dated 10/9/03 and drawn on Colonial Bank of Fort Myers Beach) to the Department of State.

If you have any questions regarding this request, I can be reached at 239-463-7604 or by mail at 4265 Bay Beach lane #722, Ft. Myers Beach, FL 33931.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Andre P. Priem
Director and Registered Agent
