THE SOPHISTICATED LADIES OF TAMPA BAY, INC.
ANNUAL MEETING 2002

The annual meeting was held January 27, 2002, at the home of the President. The Lords's Prayer was said in unison and each member said a Bible verse. The devotional song was "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross".

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

As the first order of business we held our annual election. The President declared all offices vacant and as usual sister Joyce Bloom was appointed keeper of the ballads. A motion was made, second and carried that all officers remain the same for the coming year. The 2002 officers are as follows:

President	Selphenia Hudson
Vice-president	Willie Mae Williams
Secretary	Carolyn Sheehy
Financial Sec.	Joyce Bloom
Treasure	Paula Johnson-Lang
Reporter	Ellen J Duhart

The President briefly reviewed the duties of the officers. She indicated that all officers should have a clear idea of their duties and responsibilities.

OLD BUSINESS

There was no old business carried over from last year.

NEW BUSINESS

The President said that we need to increase our membership in order to maintain our status.

The State convention will be held in Tampa this year, which will make it easier for all members to attend.

We still need to find a special charity. Working with one charity all the time will help make our name more recognizable in the community. This does not mean we cannot help other charities.

The President would like for each member to bring an idea for a fundraiser to our next meeting.

The financial secretary gave her report and it was accepted.

MEMBERS PRESENT

Paula Johnson-Lang	Ellen J Duhart
Connie Hammond	Joyce Bloom
Selphenia Hudson	Sharon Bailey
Grace West	Carolyn Sheehy
Willia Mae Williams
