Dear Ms. Shepard:

I am writing in response to your letter for May 11, 2001, informing me that our corporation must be reinstated prior to your accepting and processing an amendment to change in the name of our corporation.

Please find enclosed:

- a copy of your letter of May 11, 2001;
- a completed Corporation Reinstatement document, which includes a separate sheet for the additional listing of directors as required by item 9;
- a resubmitted Amendment to our Articles of Incorporation;
- a check $306.25 which covers the reinstatement fee ($175), filing fees for 2000 and 2001 (at $61.25 per year), and one copy of our certificate of status ($8.75).

In my letter dated April 30, 2001, I provided to the Division a check for $78.75 as payment for the name change amendment filing fee of $35 and for five (5) certified copies of the amendment. That check was not returned to me and my understanding is that our application for amendment can now be processed.

Thank you for your help in this matter.
