Dear Ms. Mustain:

Enclosed is Lake Hammer Estates Homeowners Association, Inc. application for reinstatement of incorporation with the fee of $35 as discussed.

To recap our conversation, Lake Hammer Estates Homeowners Association, Inc. was dissolved due to failure to file a registered agent resignation and no replacement was given within the 60 days as a replacement of James W. Hart, Jr./Sentry Management resignation. Per your conversation you stated that the notice was sent to David Crandall on April 8 and June 15th, 1998. As stated before, the homeowners association had a turn over of officers and directors and was not aware of this notification. David Crandall our past homeowners association president abandoned his home and therefore mail was not forward accordingly.

The homeowners association has re-established with current officers and directors, it was unknown to this new board of directors and officers that the incorporation had been dissolved until this was brought recently to our attention by a local attorney office.

Please forward all future correspondence for Lake Hammer Estate Homeowners Association to P.O. Box 213, Apopka, Florida 32704-0213. If there are any questions or further information is needed, please contact me at (407) 884-9576 or work (407) 623-1180 extension 111.

Respectfully,

Penny R. Smith
