(attach additional sheets, if necessary) (be specific)

Article III. Purpose

Ã. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This Corporation shall be a nonprofit corporation. The specific purpose of the organization is:

- (a.) To bring persons who are actively engaged in the profession of Identification and Scientific Investigation into an organized body so that the profession in all of its branches may be standardized and effectively and scientifically administered.
- (b.) To encourage the improvement of the science of Forensic Identification.
- (c.) To encourage research in scientific investigation.
- (d.) To keep its members apprised of the latest techniques and discoveries in Forensic Identification.
- (e.) To raise the standards of all personnel engaged in Forensic Identification.
- (f.) To employ the collective knowledge of the profession to advance the scientific techniques of Forensic Identification.
- (g.) To use the knowledge of this Association to encourage bureaus of investigation and identification to adopt modern methods.
- (h.) To endeavor to elevate the standards of the membership of this association, inspire a just pride in their profession, and by their united efforts, reduce crime by making identification certain, and to aid society generally.
- (i.) By cooperation between the several states of this organization and other countries to make more effective the work of the forensic identification expert, to promote any advances in science and research in one locality so that it can be disseminated in other places through the medium of its delegates in conferences assembled, and by other means of communication.
