It came to my mind that I didn't return this application. I really don't know why you sent it back to me, everything I sent you, check and all I only needed a 2007 application and that was the main thing missing.

If you only knew what I am having to put up with, and there is no way to stop it. An influx of mail that is about making me crazy. For one, Gov mail, all the problems in Washington, think we citizens have to put up and pay for all the mistakes they make. Our country is in the biggest mess ever and almost no way to straighten it out. The liberals what they are up to. The illegals from Mexico want to take over. The UN, demons destroying our US. With all the papers, that I just can't trash without, going through it keeps me up till 3:AM every day. Anything so easily could get
