Re: Document #N93000004137

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am in receipt of the Dissolution/Revocation of Corporations document. The annual report forms sent out in February and May were never received by our office. This may be due to our name change and address change, during the middle of the year. We did file for our name and address change in the month of May and perhaps this may have caused some confusion with the notification being sent to our incorrect name and address.

We are currently located in Altamonte Springs, and the dissolution paperwork was cross referenced and directed to our correct name and address. Our records indicate that we did file an annual report last year in February of 1997 (as soon as the report was received). Also, I notice that our officers on record are not accurate for the 1998 year. These are changed on the annual report each year as our officers are changed each year. I have made changes to this document and corrected the address as well.

I apologize for the delay in filing this paperwork and I have enclosed the $150.00 check for payment of this annual reporting fee plus the supplemental fee required. I assure you we would have sent this payment in, if we had received notification. We are not in the habit of letting our obligations to the state and federal government lapse. Again, my apologies for adding to your mounting paperwork and we have left ourselves a tickler for February of 1999, in order to avoid this in the future.

Sincerely,

Gilda M. Culberson
Executive Director
