Articles of Amendment
To
Articles of Incorporation
Of The Living Word Holy Church, Inc.

As part of our application for recognition for exemption from federal income tax, we agree to make the following amendments if any to our organizing documents, Article of Incorporation of the undersigned, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of Florida, do hereby certify the amendments will be filed and approved by the appropriate state official:

First: The name of the Corporation shall be: The Living Word Holy Church, Inc.

Second: The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located is the City of Pensacola, Escambia County.

Third: Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Fourth: The names and addresses of the persons who are the initial trustees of the corporation are as follows:

Name: Samuel E. Beasley, President      Address: 691 A Broad Street, Pensacola, FL 32503.

Fifth: No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The existing childcare/school program (LWHC Learning Center & Academy) qualifies under IRC 501(k) as we provide care for children away from their homes, substantially all of the childcare enables individuals to be gainfully employed; and the services provided by the organization are available to the general public. We further substantiate that our Academy/School regarding IRC 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) is a school. It qualifies as a school based on our curriculum, regularly schedule classes and formal instruction that will culminate into a general education and certified with a diploma based on the Escambia County, Florida located directly on the campus of Living Word Holy Church, Inc.

If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in your state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Sixth: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names this 25th day of July, 2006.
