ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE CHRISTI ACADEMY, INC
(A Foundation and Corporation Not-for-Profit)

THE UNDERSIGNED forms a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and hereby certifies as follows:

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the Corporation shall be: THE CHRISTI ACADEMY, INC.

ARTICLE II
OFFICER AND REGISTERED AGENT

The Corporation shall initially maintain its principal place of business in Broward County, Florida, with the principal office at 7701 SW 6th Street, N. Lauderdale, Florida 33068. The name of the principal registered agent is Nancy C. Hellwege.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE OF CORPORATION

3. Purposes.

The purposes of the Corporation shall be:

- 3a To provide meaningful and effective education for those students who require innovative alternative and specialized teaching methods and techniques. This alternative and innovative form of education shall be provided to those students, whether or not suffering from learning disorders, physical or mental disabilities as defined in Florida and Federal Statutes, attention deficit disorders and any related disabilities, disorders, either physical or mental, which delay or hinder the learning process.
- 3b To create an international training center to educate, advise and train teachers in the innovative, individualized teaching and educating techniques that are used and that are found to be most effective for the students with special needs, including but not limited to those students with physical or mental handicaps, disabilities, and learning disorders as previously described.
- 3c To create an internationally recognized school and educational program using the innovative and specialized educational and teaching methods and techniques. This school will serve as a model and guide for the use of and the implementation of such innovative specialized and individualized teaching techniques as are found to be the most effective for maximizing the potential of students requiring special teaching and educational methods.

- 3d To create an international clearinghouse of information relating to on going research studies, evaluations and the results of the use and implementation of the innovative and specialized and individualized teaching techniques and methods. These methods will focus on children requiring specialized education, and will help to avoid duplication of efforts and identify the more useful and beneficial efforts. These will be supported by any means available, including but not limited to, grants, contributions, or other forms of economic aid.
- 3e To create, finance and build a functioning school, to be known as The Christi Academy, which will contain the latest in teaching equipment and facilities and which will employ those gifted and talented and dedicated men and women from around the country and around the world who are committed to the use of innovative and effective and individualized teaching techniques, with the common goal being to provide educational alternatives to those students requiring specialized attention, with the overall common goal of maximizing the educational potential of every student involved.
- 3f To solicit and raise funds and endowments and to receive by way of gift, purchase, grant, devise, will or otherwise, property, real, personally or mixed, and to hold, use, maintain, lease, donate, pledge, encumber, loan, sell, convey, and otherwise dispose of all such property in furtherance of the objectives and purposes of this corporation, including but not limited to the building and operation of the Christi Academy.
- 3g To do and perform any and all acts or services that may be incidental or necessary to carry out the above purposes.
- 3h To establish and maintain a tax exempt status with the Internal Revenue Service under the Internal Revenue Code, to provide lawful, charitable and tax exempt deductions for donors or any persons, corporations, or entities wishing to grant, devise, will or otherwise give real, personal or mixed property to the Corporation, for the furtherance of the Corporation goals.
- 3i To offer consultations, correspondence, seminar courses, training instructions, in all fields of education, as previously described.
- 3j To have and maintain such office or offices and related equipment and facilities as are necessary, convenient or expedient, to administer the affairs of said non-profit Corporation in the furtherance of the previously mentioned purposes, intentions and goals of the non-profit Corporation.

- 3k To engage in any lawful act or activity for which a not-for-profit corporation may be organized and maintained under the laws of the State of Florida.

3.2 Limitations.

The Corporation is organized not for profit and no part of the income of said corporation shall ever be distributed to any director or officer or any private individual, provided, however, that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, including compensation paid to one or more directors or officers of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall have no stated capital or capital stock. It is organized and shall be operated exclusively for educational purposes and not for financial gain.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the dissemination of propaganda, lobbying or other attempts to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Any receipts of the Corporation in excess of the expense of the conducting and operation of the Corporation and the Christi Academy shall be applied by the directors to carry out the purposes of this not-for-profit Corporation, as they, in their judgment, may deem wise.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Corporations shall not conduct or carry on activities, transactions or operations not permitted to be conducted or carried on by:

1. an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended and interpreted.

2. an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or as may hereafter be amended or interpreted.

3. a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida as they now exist or may hereafter may be amended or interpreted. This not-for-profit Corporation shall at all times be exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

ARTICLE IV

The Corporation shall possess and may exercise all the powers and privileges granted by Chapters 607 and 617 of the Florida Statutes, or by any other law of Florida (consistent with any Federal laws, including but not limited to, Internal Revenue Code and Regulations), together with all powers necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the activities or purposes of the Corporation, and limited only by the restrictions set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or by Florida and Federal law. The Corporation shall not engage in activities that are not related to its charitable purposes.
