A Florida Corporation Not For Profit.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Coral Lake Home Owners and Resident Association, Incorporated

ARTICLE II

This corporation is organized pursuant to the Corporations Not For Profit Law of the State of Florida, set forth in Part One of Chapter 617 and Chapter 723 Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE III

(a) The specific and primary purpose for which this corporation is organized is for the educational, cultural, and social advancement of Tenants of Coral Lake Mobile Home Community.

(b) This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, educational, cultural, and other nonprofit purposes, and no part of any net earnings shall incurr to the benefit of any member, director or officer.

(c) This corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred upon corporations under the laws of the State of Florida, provided, however, that this corporation is not empowered to engage in any activity that in itself is not in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this article.

(d) This corporation has the power to negotiate for, acquire, and operate the mobile home park on behalf of the mobile home owners. In the event of acquisition, the corporation shall, by majority vote, dictate the type of ownership (i.e., condominium, cooperative, etc.) and thereupon proceed to convert to said dictate, forthwith. Upon acquisition of the property, the corporation shall be the entity that creates a condominium or offers cooperative shares for sale or lease in the Ordinary course of business or, if the home owners choose a different form of ownership, the entity that owns the record interest in the property and that is responsible for the operation of the property.

(e) The corporation may contract, sue, or be sued with respect to the exercise or non-exercise of its powers. For these purposes, the powers of the association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the park property. The association may institute, maintain, settle or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all home owners concerning matters of common interest, including, but not limited to, the common property; structural components of a building or other improvements; mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving the park property; and protests of ad valorem taxes on commonly used facilities. If the association has the authority to maintain a class action. Nothing herein limits any statutory or common law right of any individual home owner or class of home owners to bring any action which may otherwise be available.

(f) The powers and duties of the association include those set forth in this section and those set forth in the articles of incorporation and bylaws, and any recorded declarations or restrictions encumbering the park property, if not inconsistent with this chapter.

(g) The association has the power to make and collect assessments and to lease, maintain, repair, and replace the common areas upon purchase of the mobile home park.

(h) The association shall maintain accounting records in the county where the property is located, according to good accounting practices. The records shall be open to inspection by association members or their authorized representatives at reasonable times and written summaries of such records shall be supplied at least annually to such members or their authorized representatives. Failure of the association to permit inspection of the association's accounting records by members or their authorized representatives entitles any person prevailing in an enforcement action to recover reasonable attorney's fees from the person in control of the books and records who, directly or indirectly, knowingly denies access to the books and records for inspection. The records shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(1) A record of all receipts and expenditures.

(2) An account for each member, designating the name and current mailing address for the member, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessments come due, the amount paid upon the account, and the balance due.

(i) The association has the power to purchase shares in the park and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them.

(j) The association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance to protect the association and the park property upon purchase of the mobile home park. A copy of each policy of insurance in effect shall be made available for inspection by owners at reasonable times.

(k) The association has the authority without the joinder of any home owners, to modify or move or create any easement for ingress and egress or for the purposes of utilities if the easement constitutes part of or crosses the park property upon purchase of the mobile home park. This subsection does not authorize the association to modify or move any easement created in whole or in part for the use or benefit of anyone other than the members, or crossing the property of anyone other than the members, without their consent or approval as required by law or the instrument creating the easement. Nothing in this subsection affects the rights of ingress or egress of any member of the association.
