Re: Coral Springs Youth Lacrosse Club, Inc.
Paradise Lacrosse Camp

Gentlemen:

Attach please find the application for reinstatement for the above two not-for-profit corporations, along with checks for $61.25 for each entity. The purpose of this letter, is to request that the reinstatement fee of $175.00 for each corporation be waived. The reason for this request, is that the former party handling the registration for the corporations, passed on this year, and the clubs were unaware that the annual registration was not filed. Both of the corporations are for the youth of our community, and many of the participants are scholarshipped, with funds coming from private donations and fund raising.

By having to pay an additional $350.00 for reinstatement, the local youth suffers, because we may not be able to fund the needs of some of the participants. As you can see, the registered agent, as well as the mailing address have been changed, so we should not encounter this problem again.

I thank you in advance for any consideration granted us. If you decline my request, please apprise me accordingly, so I can get the matter cleared up.

Very truly yours,

Donn Grushka
Registered Agent
