ARTICLE I
Name

The name of the corporation shall be:
Genesis Youth Ministries INC.

ARTICLE II
Principle place of business and mailing address

The principle place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be: 622 Wilshire Drive, Casselberry, Florida 32707.

ARTICLE III
Purpose(s)

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized are: To seek out youth and adequately equip them in a sound Biblical Foundation as found only in the Word of God, of the Holy Scriptures, known as the Old and New Testament and to propagate the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, that was written by man, but inspired by the Holy Spirit, and is the record of God's Revelation of Himself to man. The institution or institutions established, assisted and supported by the corporation are to be thoroughly Christian and founded upon the Bible under the name of Holy Scriptures, the Word of God, written as it is found in the Old and New Testaments which contain sixty-six books only; which writings were given by the inspiration of God and are the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

A. This philosophy is briefly stated as follows:

1. We believe that all things were created by the Supreme God and do exist and are maintained for His Glory only.
2. We believe that it is God's Will that His Glory be Supreme and Central in all life's experiences.
3. We believe that the training and education of youth must be God Honoring and God Centered.

B. In addition to the above, the corporation is formed to exercise the following powers:

1. To have succession by its corporate name for the period set forth herein.
2. To sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.
3. To elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require to allow them reasonable compensation.
4. To adopt, change, amend and repeal its laws, not

1. To make, file and record all documents, reports, and other papers required by the laws of the state of incorporation and the corporation of its corporate powers.

2. To increase or decrease its number of trustees, the Board may, directly, the number of its trustees, so that the number shall not be less than three, but not the number in excess thereof, up to twenty-one (21).

3. To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of or any property, franchises or otherwise.

4. To conduct the affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise its corporate powers in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or in foreign countries.

5. To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, subscription, bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, dispose of, or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

6. To acquire, employ, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks, and any licenses and other rights in and/or thereto, therewith or therein.

7. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property, and/or assets.

8. To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and otherwise buy and deal in and with, shares and other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district, municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

12. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property, security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

13. To use all means of instruction allowed by the Board of Education, contract and teach all students attending its schools or institutions established, assisted and supported by the corporation, so that they may become thoroughly grounded in the wisdom and knowledge of the truth of the gospel of Christ Jesus Christ.

14. To have and to exercise all powers necessary and convenient to effect all or any of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.
