ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF

Atlantic Non-Profit Housing Corporation,
a Florida non-profit corporation

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is Atlantic Non-Profit Housing Corporation.

ARTICLE II

A. The purposes for which this Corporation is organized include the transaction of any or all lawful business for which non-profit corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida, as they may be amended from time to time.

B. The general purpose of the Corporation is to promote the common good, health, safety and general welfare of low-income families.

C. The specific purpose of the Corporation is to bring about civic betterment and social improvement by providing for the preservation, ownership, management, maintenance, and care of decent, safe and sanitary housing, affordable to low-income families. The Corporation will purchase the Atlantic Gardens Apartments housing project in Jacksonville, Florida, through the federal program commonly known as the Low Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act of 1990 (LIHPRIA). See Subtitle A of Title VI of the National Affordable Housing Act of 1990, 24 CFR Part 248, Subpart B. All units owned or managed by the Corporation shall be maintained as affordable for low income families as required by LIHPRIA.

Article III

A. This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law and the laws of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in the furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation, and the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation to which contributions are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as provided in § 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

C. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II.

D. On the winding up and dissolution of this Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Corporation, the remaining assets of this Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for any public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

E. During such period, or periods, of time as the Corporation is treated as a "private foundation" pursuant to § 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, the directors must distribute the corporation's income at such time and in such manner so as not to subject the Corporation to tax under § 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in § 4941(d) of the Code), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in § 4943(c) of the Code), which would subject the Corporation to tax under § 4943 of the Code, from making any investments or otherwise acquiring assets which would subject the Corporation to tax under § 4944 of the Code, from retaining any assets which would subject the Corporation to tax under § 4944 of the Code if the directors have acquired such assets, and from making any taxable expenditures (as defined in § 4945(d) of the Code).
