Articles of Incorporation of Jensen Beach Main Street, Inc., a Florida Not for Profit Corporation

The undersigned person, acting as incorporator of a corporation not for profit under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such Corporation:

Article I - Name

The name of the Corporation is: JENSEN BEACH MAIN STREET, INC.

Article II - Effective Date

Corporate existence shall begin upon the filing of these Articles with the Secretary of State of Florida.

Article III - Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual duration.

Article IV - Purposes

The Corporation is organized to operate exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) and more specifically:

(a) to promote the historic preservation, protection and use of Jensen Beach's traditional downtown area, including that area's commercial, civic and religious enterprises and residences;

(b) to take remedial actions to eliminate the physical, economic and social deterioration of Jensen Beach's traditional downtown area and thereby promote Jensen Beach's historic preservation, contribute to its community betterment while lessening the burdens of Martin County's government;

(c) to disseminate information of and promote interest in the preservation, history, culture, architecture and public use of Jensen Beach's traditional downtown area;

(d) to hold meetings, seminars and other activities for the instruction of members and the public in those activities such as building rehabilitation and design, economic restructuring and planning management that foster the preservation of Jensen Beach's traditional downtown area, and enhance the understanding and appreciation of its history, culture and architecture;

(e) to aid, work with and participate in the activities of other organizations, individuals and public and private entities

located within and outside Jensen Beach engaged in similar purposes;

(f) to combat deterioration and urban decay by promoting and participating in the economic development of Jensen Beach's blighted areas, as defined by Section 163.355, Florida Statutes, and as designated by appropriate governmental authority. Currently Jensen Beach's blighted area is defined in Martin County Ordinance #371, Resolution #94-02.20; Ordinance #441 and Resolution #94-5.12. The current boundaries of the County designated blighted area appears as the shaded area of the District in Exhibit A hereto.

(g) to solicit and receive and administer funds for educational purposes and to that end to take and hold by bequest, devise, gift, grant, purchase, lease or otherwise, either absolutely or jointly with another person or corporation, any property, real, personal, tangible or intangible, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount of value; to sell, convey or otherwise dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest or deal with the principal or the income thereof in such manner as, in the judgment of the corporation's directors, will best promote the purposes of the corporation without limitation, except such limitation, if any as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, the bylaws of the corporation or any laws applicable thereto.

In addition, in furtherance but not in limitation thereof: The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation except as an insubstantial part of its activities. The Corporation shall not engage in any transaction or permit any act or omission which shall operate to deprive it of its tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall it engage in any "prohibited transaction" as defined in Section 503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the corporation, any assets then remaining shall be distributed among such other organizations as shall qualify at the time as exempt organizations described in Code Section 501(c)(3) as the Board of Directors shall determine, such assets to be used for purposes consistent with those described in the immediately preceding subparagraphs lettered (a) through (g).

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member of the corporation or other private individual except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered herein. None of the property of the corporation shall be distributed directly or indirectly to any member of the corporation except in fulfillment of its charitable and educational purposes enumerated herein.

The Corporation also has such powers as are now or may hereafter be granted under the laws of the State of Florida that are furtherance of the corporation's exempt purposes within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding section of any future federal tax codes.
