RE: Florida Worker's Compensation Network, Inc.
Ref. Number: W9500008942

Dear Ms. Brown:

I have had an opportunity to speak to your office earlier today with regards to the above referenced matter. I have spoken with my client, who at this point in time, has decided that they wish to withdraw the filing of this entity at this time. However, at this point in time I would instead like to file the Articles of Incorporation which are enclosed herewith for the non-profit corporation called Sarment Evangelique.

In addition to the foregoing, I am enclosing a copy of your original letter which is referenced as letter number 495A00019838 for your reference. As previously set forth, I have enclosed two copies of the Articles of Incorporation of the non-profit corporation, Sarment Evangelique. I would appreciate it if along with returning the certification of receipt by the State of Florida, you would also return a copy of the same which has been stamped for my records.

In speaking with your office, they have told me that they will be able to credit the $122.50 already being held which was to be used for the filing of the Florida Workers Compensation Network, Inc., Articles of Incorporation. Thank you for substituting instead the Articles for the non-profit corporation of Sarment Evangelique.

Should you have any further questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned at your earliest convenience.

I am sincerely,

PHILIP V. SCHWARTZ, ESQ.
