OF ALIANZA LATINA

FILED
95 JUN -6 PM 4:
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

We the undersigned natural persons, each over the age of twenty-one (21) years and being a citizen of the State of Florida, acting as Incorporators of a corporation under the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

ARTICLE ONE - NAME

The name of the corporation is ALIANZA LATINA, Inc.

ARTICLE TWO-DURATION

The period of its duration shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE-PURPOSES

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Alianza Latina provides a forum for informational exchange about issues that affect persons who are Latinos or Latinas in North Central Florida. "Latina" refers to all people who are considered or who consider themselves based on birth or national heritage as Latin American and/or Caribbean who reside, work or are otherwise affiliated in North Central Florida. "North Central Florida" refers to the City of Gainesville, surrounding Alachua County, and adjacent counties to the North, including but not limited to Leon and Duval Counties.

To facilitate such exchange, Alianza Latina engages in activities which are not political as defined in the aforementioned internal revenue laws. Those activities include colloquiums, seminars, lectures, exhibitions, and similar educational events about various topics. Topics include but are not limited to the arts, education, environment, health, and family relations.

Such activities will be made known through media, including but not limited to announcements via television, radio, and newspapers, and through human resources in the North Central Florida Latin community and elsewhere. Information will be disseminated to further understanding of the Latin community to the peoples themselves and to the community-at-large in North Central Florida.

For such purposes, Alianza Latina is being organized as a not-for-profit corporation as that term is defined by applicable law in Florida and in the United States. The Alianza board of directors at this time is comprised of women who are local residents, business-owners, educators, and students in Gainesville, and Alachua County.

Upon the dissolution of said corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operating exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by an appropriate court exercising jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE FOUR-RESTRICTIONS

(A) All of the property, assets, income, principal and contributions of the corporation are irrevocably dedicated to the charitable purposes stated above, and no part of the net earnings, properties or assets of this corporation shall at any time inure to the benefit of any private person or individual or any Director of this corporation and upon dissolution or liquidation of all properties and assets of this corporation remaining after paying or providing for all debts and obligations shall be distributed and paid over to such fund, foundation, or corporation organized and operated purely for charitable purposes as the Board of Directors shall determine and as shall at that time qualify as a tax exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or as the same may be amended.

(B) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist in attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, or directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(C) The corporation shall not engage in any of the prohibited transactions described in Section 503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now in force and afterwards amended.
