To whom it may concern:

Yesterday I sent in articles of incorporation via courier service for the "Village of Killian Gardens." I forget to include the check of $70.00 for the incorporation and registered agent fees. Included with this letter is the check I was supposed to send with the articles. I would be truly appreciative if you could match the check with the articles. I understand that typically I should wait until receiving written notice from you that the check was missing; however, I just do not have the time to wait. Anything that you could do to expedite the process of incorporating, considering my mistake, would be truly appreciated.

Should you have any concerns or problems, please give my a call anytime at (305) 279-3110. Thank you very much for your help and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Kevin Neiman
