Sirs:

I am writing with reference to the enclosed uniform Business Report. Due to a change in accounting staff, the annual Uniform Business Report was inadvertently filed away without the necessary fees being paid. We were of the assumption that these fees were paid by the previous bookkeeper, and only learn of his negligence when our present accountant came in to review our books for the quarter.

Therefore, we are asking for your leniency by waiving the late fees for the said reports, as this was not done deliberately, it was an avoidable mistake. Thank you for your kind attention and cooperation on this matter.

Yours truly,

Felicia Whipple
