development of spiritual values and for the renewal of our strength in accordance with the generally accepted faith and practice of the Religious Society of Friends.

(8) To provide any of the above services or support to any Quaker related organization or organization whose purposes are not otherwise inconsistent with these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation.

(B) The Corporation may also engage in such other charitable and educational activities within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, generally related to or in furtherance of the above purposes.

Article 5. Powers. The Corporation shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida that are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles. The Corporation shall not issue shares of stock. The Corporation is constituted so as to attract substantial support from contributions from persons in the community in which it operates and has not been formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain. The Corporation shall not distribute any part of its income to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, officers and employees for services rendered in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 4 hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the
