QUARTERLY REPORT FILING REQUIREMENTS CHAPTER 494, FLORIDA STATUTES

Thank you for filing your first Quarterly Report timely and electronically. As a reminder, the Division is furnishing information to facilitate the second quarter filing process. This will be our last mailing to remind you of the deadlines noted on the bottom of this sheet. The enclosures include:

Errors to Avoid in Filing a Quarterly Report

Please carefully review the Common Errors sheet in order to correct any error(s) you may have made in your first filing.

At the top of this Notice is your Authorization Number. Use the authorization number to update your business and branch office licensing information through the Internet and to file your next quarterly report electronically. This is a unique identification number assigned to your business - it is important to keep this number confidential and to save it for future use. To file electronically, visit our website at <https://ssl.dbf.state.fl.us/cf/lic/mbqr/login.cfm> and login to the system using your FEIN and your authorization number. To use other services available through the website, such as a viewing and printing a lawbook or obtaining compliance information, use the website address: www.dbf.state.fl.us/licensing/MBlist.html and follow the links.

The Quarterly Report List of Reported Persons requires you to identify the Branch Number corresponding to each person's office of employment address. The primary (main) office branch number is always 000. For all other locations, the three-digit Branch Number can be found in your branch office licensing information on the Internet website. After you login, select View Branch List to see a list of locations currently licensed with your firm.

The following chart shows all the deadlines for each quarter in the year 2000:

Quarters in Year 2000	Filing Deadline
Jan 1 - March 31	Monday, May 1, 2000
April 1 - June 30	Monday, July 31, 2000
July 1 - Sept 30	Monday, Oct 30, 2000
Oct 1 - Dec 31	Tuesday, Jan 30, 2001

CHAPTER 494 QUARTERLY REPORTS

Most Common Errors Identified by the Department

1. Filing a first quarter "zero report" in error.

No Mortgage Brokerage Business should file their initial report indicating they have zero persons to report since all Mortgage Brokerage Businesses must have at least one associate, the principal broker. Remedy this on your current quarter report by listing every person as an "associate", including the principal broker and owners, who are licensed mortgage brokers associated with the business. Do this without checking the box marked "zero report".

If your business is a licensed lender, you must have at least one loan originator. The only exception is a licensed lender who is only servicing mortgage loans and not originating them. To correct an erroneous "zero report", go to the website and submit your report for the current quarter. Do not check the box marked "zero report". Proceed with listing all your loan originators.

2. Incorrectly identifying a person as an associate or a loan originator.

Mortgage Broker Businesses can have no "loan originators". All licensed mortgage brokers affiliated with the business must be reported as "associates". Make any corrections on your current quarter report.

Lenders only have an "associate" to report when a licensed mortgage broker is affiliated with them as an independent contractor. Any licensed mortgage broker who is a bona-fide employee of a lender should be listed as a "loan originator". Make any corrections on your current quarter report.

3. Deleting a person's record in error.

The DELETE button on the website is for one purpose only: if you make a mistake in a person's Social Security Number you must delete the record and re-enter it with the correct SSN. Do not use the DELETE for any other purpose. To report that a person is no longer employed, simply update the person's record with the termination date. If you have already deleted a person in error, add the person's record again.

4. Submission of incomplete data.

This was our most common error for those who submitted paper reports. Remedy this by entering all the required data on the current quarterly report including:

Date of Birth, Resident Address (if a loan originator) and Audit Number (if an associate), Hire Date, Branch Number, and identify whether the reported person is an Associate or a Loan Originator.
