ARTICLE III - Purpose(s)

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized is (are):

(1) To assist students from any and all nations who desire to attend West Indies College in Mandeville, Jamaica W.I. who are in need of financial assistance because of a genuine lack of support or funding due but not limited to the following criteria:

- a. Economic privation of students desiring admission
- b. Students whose sources of financial help have been cut off due to students desire to affiliate with and become members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
- c. Lack of scholarship funding from other quarters necessitating additional financial help for those students in genuine need.

(2) To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principle thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, health, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and it's regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(3) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, or officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, trustee, officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

(4) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE IV - Manner of election of directors

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed is as provided for in the bylaws.

The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the regular annual meeting if the Board of Directors. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be.
