ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE FAMILY WORSHIP AND PRAISE CENTER, INC.

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a nonprofit Corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes, Chapter 617, makes and adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I
Name

The name of the Corporation is as follows: The Family Worship and Praise Center, Inc.

ARTICLE II
Principal Office

The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation is 1604 Branch Street, Tallahassee, FL 32303.

ARTICLE III
Purposes

The general purposes and objects of this corporation shall be to organize into a non-profit Christian Church for the purpose of engaging in religious activities. Specifically, the purposes of the corporation are: To aid in the spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ to the ends of the earth by the ministry of preaching, teaching, praying, and healing. Also, to educate, prepare, and ordain Christian men and women for the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for religious, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to that end, the Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such a manner as, in the judgment of the directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, without limitation, except limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV Dissolution

On the dissolution of the Corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the Corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 170(c)(1) and is described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 509(a)(1), (2) or (3).

ARTICLE V Initial Board of Directors and Officers

The Directors shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of the majority of directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by electing or appointing officers and board members. The affairs and business of the corporation shall be managed by the Directors, consisting of not less than three, no more than fifteen members, who shall serve terms as prescribed in the by-laws. The directors shall be divided into three (3) classes and hold office for a term of two (2) years and elections shall be held annually. The initial directors shall be elected so that the term of the first class expires at the annual meeting; the term of the second class expires one year later; and the term of the third
