RE: Address update

To whom this may concern.

We are writing to officially inform you that I have moved to a new address. (Twice in eight months now) I have in fact, told the U. S. Postal Service to forward all mail to my new and current address. Unfortunately, my family and I have had an horrendous time in receiving all of our mail. It seems this is an ongoing problem. In addition to not receiving the proper forms and information from your organization, we have also missed other important mail items. Unfortunately, we now have to send you this dissolved fee of $122.50 for 2 yrs. Please send us the information we need to send you guys, so that we can give you the information you need. We will then expeditiously send you our information. Thank you for your cooperation. Our new mailing address is listed below.
