ARTICLE II NATURE OF BUSINESS

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation is to propagate the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and in deed, and to train the members of this organization for the work of the ministry, and the objects and purposes proposed to be promoted and carried on by this corporation are to do any and all of the things set forth as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world, not for profit, as follows: The general nature of the objects of the church shall be religious, christian, charitable and such other as are generally carried on by religious christian organizations in the United States; to train, license, and conduct such church departments, or agencies and schools as may be proper to the above mentioned purposes; to own, control, lease and purchase and to take by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, and to convey, dispose of, mortgage, encumber, lease, and in every respect to do all things and exercise all powers which a natural person might do and exercise over and about real or personal property of every nature and kind whatsoever, including real estate, leaseholds, bonds, stocks and

ARTICLE XI

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in Article two hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of ¹Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names this 03 day of January 2002
