Dear Department Of State,

I was informed by mail today that our Corporation was dissolved.

I requested a filing form in June and again in August and did not receive the requested information to renew our Corporate Status.

I did file on time another Corporation that we have with no difficulty, but for the above mentioned, we did not receive the documents.

After having spoke to one of your agents, she kindly advised me to inform your office of the situation and to send the normal fee of $ 61.25 in addition to the amount for our new certificate.

Please process for us. I apologize if we have caused any inconvenience to your office though had we received the needed documents. we would have certainly filed. I am certain it was just an oversight or a loss in the Postal system.

Thank you for your kind and prompt service.

Sincerely,

Dr. F. Lonnie Langston
