ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

I, the undersigned, acting as the incorporator of a corporation pursuant to chapter 617, Florida Statutes, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

Name of this Corporation

The name of this corporation shall be:

One Accord Fellowship Nondenominational Ministry, Inc.

ARTICLE II

Address of business and mailing

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

14616 62 CT N

Loxahatchee, FL 33470

ARTICLE III

Purpose of this Corporation

The One Accord Fellowship Nondenominational Ministry, Inc. is a Christian church. It was organized with the Holy Bible being the basis of its doctrine. This church is nondenominational by the belief that Christian worship, ministry, and the Christian lifestyle should have no divisions in belief, doctrine, or standards, but should be as the people who were worshiping in the Upper Room on the day of Pentecost, when the Spirit of God visited them, with "one accord". It is considered Pentecostal because it is patterned from that original Church in the book of Acts of the Holy Bible, better known as the Upper Room.

The purpose of this church is to be a light; an example, to the community and the world by teaching its members to put a difference between their life and the life of the unbeliever, or the unchurched. The One Accord Nondenominational Ministry, Inc. is a church where the Word of God is preached, taught and studied as the doctrine of our faith. Members will be admonished to abstain from those activities considered evil in the Holy Bible, and live a righteous, fulfilling life in Christ. In the same sense members are encourage to become God fearing, law abiding, productive citizens, full of good works in love and hospitality in today's society. The church must be a light to the community and the world. The world nor the community can see a light in darkness except it be lit.

The One Accord Fellowship Nondenominational Ministry, Inc., like that church in the book of Acts, must be financially supported by its members. Members are obliged to support the church financially with their tithes and offering according to Exodus, Deuteronomy and Malachi. In reference to the acts and teaching of Melchizedek and Abraham, and according to the teachings of Jesus himself, in Luke, saying "give and it shall be given unto you, good measure...". Finances are needed for any church, being a charitable organization, to function administratively, as well as to minister to others by the spreading of the gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and exhibiting His love through good works. It is the charge of the church to aid the widows, the fatherless, the sick and incarcerated, and the poor, and to preach the gospel unto them. On occasions, the church will ask for the support of nonmembers or may support nonmembers or other charitable organizations, for we are all helpers one of another.

ARTICLE IV Manner of election of directors

All officials and directors will be appointed by the pastor, who is the president and chief spiritual overseer of this church, as did Moses, when instructed by his father-in-law, Jethro. After being observed for one year, members may be recommended by a director, to the pastor for consideration of appointment to an unfilled office, according to the criteria in the bylaws. The term of all officers is one calendar year. Members who believe that they are being called into the ministry of the work of His Kingdom, will be appointed and anointed by the pastor to work and make sure his/her calling. After being observed and been found sure, according to the bylaws, the pastor will certify or ordain and charge this worker.

ARTICLE V Limitation of Corporate Powers

There shall be no limitation of powers except that of expansion of directors and final decision. The board of directors shall not increase from that stated in the bylaws, except in the case of the death of the pastor. The board shall then increase by one, that being the addition of the first lady emeritus who shall then serve as interim pastor, until a pastor is appointed. The pastor retains the authority to override any decision to action or response for reason of time, research, finance, etc., according to the unktion of the Spirit of God. All decisions and activities shall be made official only by the approval of the pastor.

ARTICLE VI Initial registered agent and address of this Corporation

The name and the street address of the initial registered agent is:

Randy L. Jackson
14616 62 CT N
Loxahatchee, FL 33470

ARTICLE VII
Incorporators of this Corporation

1) The initial directors of One Accord Fellowship Nondenominational Ministry, Inc. are:

Randy L. Jackson

2) The church is the house of God. Therefore; all things are of God and belong to Him. God has set pastors in His churches to lead His people and oversee the operation of the ministry. Therefore:

-The decisions of the pastor is considered the rule, even though it can be repetitioned, it can only be change by the pastor after research and vote of the directors.

-No nonmember can question, overrule or change any decision, bylaw, ordinance, or order of operation that has been authorized or that is official.

-All properties that become the possession of the church, whether deeded, purchased, donated, having or not having documents, shall remain in the ownership of the church.

-The widow of a hired incorporator shall receive allotment upon the death of the incorporator according to the schedule in the bylaws.

-The First Lady, who is the pastor's wife shall upon his death, become the interim pastor. She shall, having all pastoral responsibilities and authority, perform all of the duties of the pastor.

3) In life we face many changes. Membership may be terminated for several reasons. The church must assist members or the family of members in relocating, changing membership to another Christian organization to be with their spouse or parents, if minor, death, and even though rare, expulsion must be listed. Therefore:

-The corporation has the right to refuse termination of membership, knowing that the bible states that God is married to the backslider.

-The corporation has a right to receive explanation of termination, and refuse to give a letter of commendation and recommendation of service for the terminating member for another Christian organization.

The corporation has the right to retain all properties given by member being terminated, as stated in Section 2, of this article, as corporate owned.

The terminating member has the right to be counseled by the pastor or designee.

The terminating member has the right to leave peacefully, being free from all financial duties of the church, except that of legal contract, such as a note.

The terminating member has the right to visit or rejoin the corporation under the same right as any visitor or potential member.

The remaining member has the right to continue enjoying the benefits of the corporation without harassment from terminating member or the representatives thereof.

4) Membership from this church can only be transferred once other branches of the One Accord Fellowship Nondenominational Ministry, Inc. have been officially established.

5) The pastor and the board of trustee, with recommendations of directors and attorneys, shall decide on the distribution of assets upon dissolution or final liquidation of the corporation.

6) The corporation shall have five classes of members until it expands with branches. They are:

-Lay Members - persons accepted into the church by vote, who adhere to the bylaws, ordinances and doctrine, and support the church through witness, attendance, works and finances.

-Auxiliary Officers - members, in good standing, who have been appointed to chair small committees, coordinate activities, teach according to the bylaws. They must attend training sessions according to the bylaws.

- Ministers - members, in good standing, who have received a calling of God into the ministry of His Kingdom, and have been anointed or ordained by the pastor. They must be able to preach at church, rightly dividing the Word of Truth, work in the prison or hospital, or to handle the business and functions of the ministry. All must study and be apt to teach the Word of the Lord with spiritual insight and revelation. They must attend training sessions according to the bylaws.

-Directors - selected ministers and auxiliary officers who are able to vote, recommend, handle business, initiate directions, and represent the pastor upon request. They must attend training sessions according to the bylaws.

-Pastor - one of the directors to whom God has given the rule of His house. He must preach the gospel to God's flock, but also, attend to their needs. He must teach, train, rebuke, reprove, anoint, appoint, and ordain the workers of God's vineyard. Seeing that he has the oversight, he is able to approve or disapprove any motion or decision.

When branches are established, general officers will be appointed by the pastor of the main church, then becoming the general pastor of all branches, or the bishop.

7) The initial members of this church are:
